

VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

Monroe Mandolin Camp™

Preserving Bill Monroe's original first generation bluegrass music

The Volunteer Program is a way to help participants reduce the cost of attending Camp, and to help management and faculty run the Camp smoothly. In exchange for volunteering for the required number of hours, the volunteer will receive a rebate of $100 of the Camp registration fee when Camp is over.

FAQ About the Volunteer Program:

1. How many hours will I need to volunteer?

To qualify for this $100 rebate off the registration fee of Camp, you will need to volunteer for up to 6 hours during the course of Camp. These volunteer hours will not take place during classes or jams. You need to complete your volunteer assignment to receive this rebate.

2. What will I do as a volunteer?

A list of volunteer assignments, with examples of the types of work for each position, appears below. You may indicate your top choices, and we'll try to accommodate your preferences.

3. What qualifications do I need to volunteer?

You must be at least 18 years of age. Also, you need to commit to be on time for your volunteer shifts, be helpful to others, and look for ways to solve problems. You also need to commit to not attempting any work that might be difficult for you (such as heavier lifting than you are able to do) and to letting the Volunteer Coordinator know if you are not able to perform any task assigned to you.

4. How will my volunteer hours be chosen?

As described below, you will send an email to the Volunteer Coordinator indicating the types of work you prefer. Unless you tell us that you're fine with a volunteer assignment during class hours, your assignment will most likely be on Wednesday afternoon, before Camp begins, Saturday night before the benefit concert, or Sunday afternoon, just after Camp ends.

5. May I volunteer for more than 6 hours?

Yes, but $100 is the maximum rebate.

6. May I volunteer with a friend?

For a few of the volunteer positions, two or more volunteers work together. If you'd like to volunteer with another participant, indicate that in your email, and we'll try to arrange it.

7. How will I find out exactly what I'm supposed to do for my volunteer assignment?

You will receive an email from the Volunteer Coordinator specifying your volunteer assignment, supplemented at a meeting of volunteers that will take place on the morning that Camp begins.
