We are committed to holding a safe and healthy in-person camp in the fall. At the time of camp, MMC will follow CDC recommended best practice guidelines regarding COVID-19 and its variants, as well as those of VA State and Local Regulations, and our host venue.

By unanimous vote, our Board of Directors has voted that ALL attendees (whether instructors, staff, volunteers, sponsors, special presenters, guest artists, and participants) must be fully vaccinated and prepared to offer proof of vaccination. Proof of full vaccination may be uploaded during the on-line registration process, or emailed/snail mailed in to us. We MUST receive a copy of your vaccination card PRIOR to camp.

By registering for camp, either on-line or through a mail in registration form, registrant acknowledges that Covid-19 and its variants is a virus that is present throughout the community. Monroe Mandolin Camp makes no representation that it can protect participants from accidental exposure. Registrant agrees that by participating in the camp that they agree to indemnify, waive and hold Monroe Mandolin Camp harmless from any and all potential claims as it relates to Covid-19 in the event that they contract COVID-19 or any illness at the event.
